

INTRO TO WATER

A low-friction employee wellness pilot

A company-sponsored weekend experience that lets employees try swimming safely before HR or staff commit to a longer programme.

The pilot is built to answer two practical HR questions: Will employees participate? And will the experience have a visible effect on how they feel?

PILOT AT A GLANCE

8–10 employees Suggested size; adjusted to venue and coach-to-swimmer ratio.	90 minutes Guided, beginner-friendly water experience.	Saturday morning Low disruption to the working week.	Lagos partner pool Yaba, VI, Ikoyi or Festac; final venue follows participant needs.

WHAT EMPLOYEES EXPERIENCE

- A warm, beginner-friendly orientation to the water.
- Guided breathing, floating and safe movement fundamentals.
- Small-group coaching with no pressure to perform or already know how to swim.
- A clear next step only for employees who genuinely want to continue.

WHAT SWIMBUDDZ HANDLES

- Interest form and simple pre-session safety screening.
- Coach, pool, equipment and session-plan coordination.
- Employee reminders and session-day logistics.
- Feedback collection and a concise report for HR.

WHAT HR RECEIVES

- Registration, attendance and engagement summary.
- Anonymous before/after confidence and wellbeing pulse.
- Satisfaction, comments and interest in continuing.
- A short recommendation: stop, repeat, or progress to a cohort.

WHAT SUCCESS LOOKS LIKE

- Participation: interested employees register and show up.
- Experience: participants feel safer, calmer or more confident in water.
- Continuation: genuine demand exists for a longer programme.
- Convenience: HR gets useful evidence with minimal administration.

COMMERCIAL STRUCTURE

Recommended: the company sponsors the first session, so employees pay ₦0. The one-time pilot fee is confirmed after headcount and venue are agreed; there is no setup or admin fee.

PRIVACY

Personal fears, health notes and skill details stay with the coach. HR receives only agreed, aggregated feedback.
